Royal Belfast Golf Club

Founded in 1881, Royal Belfast Golf Club lays claim to the title of the oldest golf club in Ireland. The present course dates back to 1925, when responsibility for the course design and layout at the present location was given to H.S. Colt. With the assistance of Walker Cup player W.A. Murray, Colt produced a course of great charm which provides a true test of golfing skill and enjoys one of the most scenic settings of any in these islands with its unrivalled views of Belfast Lough and the Antrim plateau beyond.

Length of course in yards: 6,185.

Par: 70.

Shandon Park Golf Club

A championship course decidedly worth inspecting. Offering views over historic Stormont, this famous parkland layout with its notable true greens, delivers an enjoyable challenge for all. The two shot sixth hole is a 455 yard giant, demanding accuracy from the tee and a downhill second shot of equal precision into a well-protected green.

Length of course in yards: 6,336.

Par: 70.
